COMMITTEE: SECURITY COUNCIL

Sara Nieto

PRESIDENT

Hello, my name is Sara Nieto, and I'll be serving as your Vice President of the Security Council. Over the years, I've participated in and won several MUN conferences, served as Secretary General, and even organized my school's first MUN.

I'm passionate about diplomacy and growth, and I look forward to seeing your ideas and solutions in action—best of luck, delegates!

Amara De La Cruz

VICE PRESIDENT

Hello delegates! My name is Amara De La Cruz, an 18-year-old Law student at PUCMM and Vice President-elect of PUCMUNAR. I've taken part in several national and international MUNS in roles such as delegate, dias, advisor, and secretariat, including Secretary-General and Undersecretary of Logistics.

I'm honored to be your Vice President at AMUN and excited to work with such talented delegates!

COMMITTEE: CRISIS COMMITTEE

Amelie Hiraldo

PRESIDENT

Hello guys, my name is Amelie Hiraldo, I'm a law student at PUCMM and I've been doing MUN for around 8 years now.

As a delegate I was very passionate about crisis committees, and I still am, which is why I'm very excited to see what you guys come up with for this conference!

Mariana Espinal

VICE PRESIDENT

Hello! My name is Mariana Espinal and I am the Vice President for our Crisis committee. I have been a part of MUNs for the past 6 years, participating in 10+ conferences and its an honor to be a part of such a wonderful team at AMUN.

I am extremely passionate about Crisis (the best committee), and am so excited to get you meet all of you in May!

COMMITTEE: WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

Grace Cohen

PRESIDENT

Hi, I'm Grace Marie Cohen Brito — MUNer for over 5 years, I'm passionate about advocacy and diplomacy. From Best Delegate to mentoring others, every debate has shaped who I am today.

To my delegates: speak with purpose, lead with empathy, and always aim for impact.

Aymee Sierra

VICE PRESIDENT

Hi! My name is Aymee Sierra and I will be your Vice President of the World Health Organization committee. I'm also the Secretary of Foreign Affairs at PUCMUNAR and a law student with a strong passion for international relations.

Over the years, I've participated in several Model UN conferences as both a delegate and a chair, receiving multiple recognitions along the way.

COMMITTEE: GENERAL ASSEMBLY 1

Juan A. Lizardo

PRESIDENT

I'm a Civil Engineering student at INTEC and founder/vice president of its Model UN club. With nearly 10 years of MUN experience as delegate, teacher, academic and logistics coordinator, chair, and Secretary-General both locally and internationally.

I'm still passionate about youth leadership, global affairs, and creating inclusive spaces for young voices. Can't wait to see some great talent, debates, and meet wonderful people who share the same passion!

José Figuerola

VICE PRESIDENT

Hello everyone, I'm José André Figuerola, I'm a dedicated leader focussed on help our community and a student, and I've been a MUNer for over 6 years now, I have great passion to mentoring others.

Delegates always do your best and don't be afraid to speak. See you soon!

COMMITTEE: ITLOS

Fernando Santos

PRESIDENT

I'm Fernando Santos, a junior at Santiago Christian School. I've served as both chair and delegate in various MUNs, due to my interest in public speaking and global affairs, while also participating in sports and studying music.

In activities like these, I especially value mutual growth and understanding, while maintaining self-confidence and the constant pursuit of knowledge. I'm excited to serve as President of ITLOS at AMUN 2025!

Robert Grullón

VICE PRESIDENT

My name is Robert Alvarez Grullón, and over the past few years I've developed a deep passion for diplomacy, multilateral cooperation, and the power of structured dialogue to shape real-world solutions.

My journey in Model United Nations began at SCSMUN 2021 where I discovered my interest in international negotiations and global affairs. Since then, I've had the opportunity to grow both as a delegate and as part of various organizing teams.

COMMITTEE: UNICEF (A)

Alissa Cabrera

PRESIDENT

My name is Alissa Mariel Cabrera, a third-year medical student at UNIBE with a long-standing passion for diplomacy.

I've participated in multiple MUNs, including three editions of Harvard Model UN, earning awards like Distinguished Delegate and serving as chair and organizer at Cathedral International School MUN.

Nicole Delance

SECRETARY

I'm a law student and your UNICEF Committee Secretary for AMUN 2025. I've previously participated in several local MUN conferences.

To my delegates: Speak up, stay curious, and trust your voice, you're more ready than you think.

COMMITTEE: UNICEF (B)

Manuel Vallejo

PRESIDENT

I am the winner of multiple mathematics competitions, including first place nationally at the 2023 Kangaroo Math Contest. I have participated in prestigious Model United Nations conferences such as YMUN (Yale University Model United Nations) and the '15-03 District Model of the Dominican Ministry of Education (MINERD), earning significant local recognition.

I was one of only 12 students selected nationwide to represent my country at the United Nations through the Junior Diplomats Program. I aim to be a role model for my delegates, helping them become the best version of themselves, giving them opportunities to stand out, and building the confidence they need to succeed.

Addison Rose

VICE PRESIDENT

Hi! My name is Addison Rose. I am a senior at the International School of Sosua.

I love being in MUN and I can't wait to continue pursuing this passion when I go to law school. My advice for all delegates is to always be adaptable.

WORKSHOP PREPARATION

Held from 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM for students, this dynamic workshop aimed to prepare Ashton's AMUN 2025 participants through engaging, hands-on activities. Led by María José Caminero, and the directive team, the session began with an oratory game focused on emotional expression, followed by an interactive diplomatic-themed escape room and specialized training tracks. Beginners explored Model UN procedures "Taller 101", while advanced students refined their speeches with directive guidance. The event concluded with a Q&A, participant feedback recordings, and a reflection session for the organizing team.
